I'm a mum of two amazing sons, of whom I'm very proud, and a nanny of three beautiful grandchildren. I've lived in the Forest for nearly 28 years and, for most of that time, have sung with the Drybrook and District Ladies Choir, of which I'm deputy conductor. I'm very fortunate to still be employed as a teacher in a primary school – a job that I love (most of the time).

Having been invited, by a former work colleague, to a service at Christchurch 15 years ago, I've been a regular member of the congregation ever since and have been churchwarden for 11 of those years.
